SPECIAL NOTICE.

THE MANAGEMENT OF PUBLIC SALES OF IMPORTANT ART COLLECTIONS.

THE FIFTH AVENUE AUCTION ROOMS begs respectfully to announce that it is prepared to undertake the management of the Exhibition and Sale of Collections of Paintings and other Art property of special importance.

Mr. Norman's experience in such matters, and the central location of the Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms, is a sufficient guarantee that all business entrusted to it will be carried through with entire satisfaction.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRST.—All goods offered for sale shall be sold to the highest bidder.

SECOND.—If a dispute arises between two or more bidders it shall be optional for the Auctioneer to strike down the goods to the person whose bid he last heard, or in his discretion to immediately put up again and re-sell the lot so in dispute.

THIRD.—The purchaser, immediately upon the goods being struck down, shall give in his name and residence and make a deposit of not less than twenty-five per cent. of the purchase price as a guarantee that the whole amount shall be paid. In default of this payment the Company will, at its option, either hold the purchaser on his contract, or rescind the contract and put up the goods so purchased to be re-sold, holding the first purchaser for any loss or damage occasioned by such re-sale.

FOURTH.—The remainder of the purchase price must be paid before the goods are removed from the premises. In default of this payment the Company will, at its option, either hold the purchaser on his contract, or rescind the contract and put up the goods so purchased to be re-sold, holding the first purchaser for any loss or damage occasioned by such re-sale. Such loss or damage shall be deducted from the amount deposited at the time of purchase, if such deposit be sufficient in amount to cover the damage. If not sufficient the Company will hold the purchaser for any further damage not covered by such deposit.

FIFTH.—The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk on the morning following each session of the sale, between Eight and Twelve o'clock, and the remainder of the purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Company on or before delivery; in default of which the undersigned will not hold themselves responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

SIXTH.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

SEVENTH.—The Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms makes no warranty as to quality, condition or title of any goods or lot of goods offered for sale, the goods having been exhibited one or more days.

EIGHTH.—Every purchaser at any sale held by the Company buys the goods subject to the foregoing conditions.

Watering Camels

RUYSDAEL, Jacob

Haarlem

Born at Haarlem about 1625. Died in 1682. Dutch school. Many of Ruysdael's landscapes are small and very simply treated, but they are always so marvelously truthful, there can be no dispute about his works. Ruysdael is justly considered one of the most eminent landscape painters of the Dutch school. He rarely painted a picture without a river, brook or pool of water. His distances have always a fine effect, and his masses of light and shadow are distributed with excellent judgment. His pictures are held in the highest estimation, and are rarely to be met with at public sale.

A Careful Mother

POINT, A.

Paris

Medal, Paris Salon, 1889. One of the most capable of the younger French followers of the "Primitives." He designs himself the frames for his pictures, and the result is uncommonly successful, as can be seen in this picture.

Primavera

Point affects the grace and the refined drawing of the early Florentines, and the suggestion which this canvas conveys of a high-bred and daintily dressed girl is carried out in the pillars and entablature, wreathed with vines in dull gilt, like the frame of an old Italian altar piece.
